1099R Processing Getting You Down?

Are all of those distributions you did last year catching up with you now as you go back to try and collect the information to generate and file each required 1099R? If the burden of processing and filing 1099Rs is draining productivity in your office, make your workflow easier starting today by taking advantage of PenChecks' pension distribution services.

Let us help you save time and money by processing your benefit distributions and come this time next year, in addition to having already processed the payments, withholding and filing all of the taxes, you'll be able to relax because we'll also process all your 1099Rs, too.

With P3, PenChecks' brand new, easy to use online processing system, there's never been a better or easier time to offload the tedious details of your distribution processing. Set up is free and takes only minutes.
